

We need dedicated volunteers to work at our stores around London. You will have a keen eye for fashion to sort and price appropriately the donated items we regularly receive. You will have excellent customer service skills and provide a high end shopping experience. You will be experienced in operating tills and handling cash. Training will be provided for both. As a volunteer you will be helping to raise money for the Octavia Foundation and support the work we do in the local community.