WOMEN IN CHARITY RETAIL

A challenged world is an alert world. Individually, we're all responsible for our own thoughts and actions - all day, every day. We can choose to challenge and call out gender bias and inequity. We can choose to seek out and celebrate women's achievements. Collectively, we can all help create an inclusive world. From challenge comes change, so let's all #choosetochallenge.

In our recent Workforce survey 2020 it was found that 76% of people who work in charity retail are female, but only 45% of the top level roles (Director/Head of Retail) are held by women.

'IN THE FUTURE, THERE WILL BE NO FEMALE LEADERS.
THERE WILL JUST BE LEADERS.'

WOMEN IN CHARITY RETAIL

Please join us for our first ever panel session celebrating International Women's Day, and more specifically, women in charity retail. We will be joined by some senior figures from our sector, including:

- Debbie Boylen, Head of Retail, Scope
- Deborah Gould, Director of Retail & Trading, Rennie Grove Hospice Care
- Allison Swaine-Hughes, Retail Director, British Heart Foundation

Supporting our session, and joining us for the panel discussion is Sarah Dodd, Managing Director of Kudos Software, a long-term corporate member of the CRA.

I FIRMLY BELIEVE THAT WHEN WOMEN LEAD TEAMS AND ORGANISATIONS IT BENEFITS THE ORGANISATION AND WIDER SOCIETY. THIS IS A PLATFORM FOR SHARING IDEAS AND EXPERIENCES SO MORE OF US CAN MAKE MORE OF A DIFFERENCE TO PEOPLE'S LIVES.
