

Cancellation Policy 2024

The Charity Retail Association makes every effort to ensure that training courses and seminars we organise take place as planned. Unfortunately, sometimes unforeseen circumstances may affect their viability in which case the following cancellation policy applies to each delegate booking.

Cancellation of a course or conference by the Association

If we cancel a previously advertised course or conference, then a delegate is entitled to:

- A full refund of the registration fee paid for the course or conference
- Instead of a refund, the option to have his/her registration fee transferred to the next scheduled course or conference provided by the Charity Retail Association of his/her choice to which the same registration fee applies.

Happily, this is something that rarely occurs.

Cancellation of attendance by a delegate

If a registered delegate is unable to attend a paid for course or conference he/she should:

- Telephone the Association as soon as possible on 0300 030 1088 to inform us and discuss their options, such as transferring the booking to another date or requesting a refund
- All cancellations should also be made in writing to our Head of Outreach, Julia Edwards, on julia@charityretail.org.uk.

Details of the delegate attending the course or conference can be changed to another delegate free of charge, please follow the instructions above to do so.
